MEDICINAL.

It is a great affliction for a woman to have her face disfigured by pimples or any form of eruptive disease. It makes her morbid and sensitive, and robs her of social enjoyment. Disfiguring eruptions are caused by impure blood, and are entirely cured by the great blood-purifying medicine—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It removes from the blood the poisonous impurities which cause disease. It perfectly and permanently cures scrofulous sores, eczema, tetter, boils, pimples and other eruptive diseases which are caused by the blood's impurity. It increases the action of the blood-making glands and thus increases the supply of pure rich blood.

For about one year and a half my face was very badly broken out," writes Miss Carrie Adams, of 116 West Main Street, Baltimore, Md. "I spent a great deal of money with doctors and for different kinds of medicine, but received no benefit. At last I read one of your advertisements in a paper, and obtained a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Before I had taken one bottle of this medicine I noticed a change, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured. I can well recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to any one similarly afflicted."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages, is given away. Send 21 one-cent stamps for expense of mailing only, for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MR. BAER'S ULTIMATUM.
As was stated in the Gazette, the conference yesterday between Governor Odell, Senators Platt, Quay and Penrose and Mr. Baer of the Reading Railroad, ended in failure so far as terminating the miners' strike was concerned.

Mr. Baer was not in the best of humor when, accompanied by E. B. Thomas, chairman of the board of directors of the Erie Railroad, he entered Senator Platt's office. The conference was begun by a statement made by Senator Penrose that the situation was becoming so serious that some solution must be found at once. He suggested that the operators should incline to some concessions toward a settlement.
"If you mean by that," said President Baer, "that we are to recognize the existence of a labor union, I tell you right now that the operators will consider no such proposition."

Governor Odell was on his feet in an instant. Holding a half-burned cigar in his hand and white with excitement, he said:
"Are we to understand that no kind of a conciliatory proposition will receive consideration at the hands of the operators?"

"I did not say that," answered Mr.
Baer, "but I do say, and I reiterate it, that we will not accept political advice or allow the interference of politicians in this affair."

Governor Odell, still manifesting excitement, said: "What do you mean by politicians? I want you and all the other operators to understand that I am the governor of New York, the chosen representative of seven million people, and that I am here in this matter solely in that capacity and to relieve, if possible, an intolerable situation. And what is more, I intend to use every power at my command to do it."

President Baer, bowed to Gov. Odell and said:
"Governor, I beg your pardon. No personal affront was intended, and we will listen to any suggestion you may have to make; but again I repeat that we must refuse to recognize the union as represented by Mr. Mitchell."

"I believe," said the governor, "that your position from a public view is absolutely untenable. If coal operators, railroad men, and other business men can combine for mutual profit and protection, there is no reason why laboring men should not."

"What is the proposition?" said Mr.
Baer, coldly.
"Just this," said Gov. Odell. "I am sure that the labor organization of which Mr. Mitchell is head desires him to be fair with the general public. If the operators will consent to give the men 5 cents a ton increase I will personally present it to the miners, and I believe they will accept it. It is a fair proposition."

"Does this mean, Gov. Odell, that we are to recognize the miners' union?" Mr. Baer asked.
"It certainly does," answered Gov.
Odell, quickly; "and there is no reason why you should not."

Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas rose to go, Mr. Thomas remarking that the matter would be presented to the other operators and that an early answer would be forthcoming. Mr. Baer said:
"We are to meet a committee of the Manufacturers' Association on Tuesday, and we may have an answer then."

The conference broke up. Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas withdrawing. Senators Platt, Penrose, and Quay walked over the matter for a short time, and then they, too, separated, the two Pennsylvania men announcing that they would go back to Harrisburg and discuss the situation with Gov. Sone.

TRAGEDY IN SCHOOLHOUSE.—A dispatch from Grand Forks, N. D., says: In a quarrel between a school teacher and the board of trustees at Altoona, a little station on the Grand Northern, within seven miles of the Canadian line, seven persons have been shot. One of them is dead and the others are dying.
The dead man is Henry Toews, school teacher, who committed suicide. The school is near a little village in the settled part of the valley. The settlers are all Mennonites. The school has been in charge of a Mennonite teacher named Henry I. Toews. There has been some dissatisfaction with the management of the school and this has led to a great deal of bad feeling in the community.
Three members of the board of trustees met at the schoolhouse during school hours to talk over the trouble with the teacher. Hot words were exchanged, and suddenly Toews drew his revolver and shot down the three trustees. He then rushed into the schoolhouse, where he shot Trustee Kehler's two daughters through the body. They will die. The eleven-year-old daughter of Trustee Rempt was then attacked, a bullet sticking her in the arm, breaking the bone.
The suicide followed.

ADMITS COMPLICITY IN MURDER OF BOYS.—The police authorities of Camden, N. J., state that Paul Woodward, the youth who is charged with the murder of Walter Price Jennings and John Coffin, has confessed to complicity in the crime. The two boys were found dead last week in the woods near Had-denfield, N. J., about six miles from Camden. Mrs. Woodward, mother of the accused young man, and William and Charles May, boarders at her house, were arrested yesterday and are being held as witnesses. Woodward denies participation in the murder of the boys, according to the police, but admits having been a party to a conspiracy to rob Jennings. He mentioned two men, supposedly residents of New York, who had conspired with him to rob Jennings of $300, which the boy was to have stolen from his father. Woodward says he led both boys with these men near the scene of the alleged murder and returned to Camden. The police scout Woodward's story and claim to have sufficient evidence to convict him of the murder.

DISORDERS IN SWITZERLAND.— Special dispatches received from Geneva represent the situation there as very serious. There had been smart fighting between the mob and the troops, the strikers using stones, bottles, and other missiles, and the troops using their sabers and bayonets freely. The hospitals are filled with casualties resulting from the encounters. The employees of the gas, electric light, and the water works of Geneva, after a prolonged discussion, of the strike situation, have decided to continue work. There were several demonstrations on the part of strikers during the morning, but they were easily suppressed by the troops. The people generally disapprove of the strike.
Several leaders of the strike, who were also anarchists, have been arrested and imprisoned by order of the government and numerous undesirable foreigners have been expelled from Switzerland.
There was a repetition of disorderly demonstrations last night. Troops and police charged the mob and sixty arrests were made.

Old People Have Their Troubles.
Mr. Francis Little of Benton Harbor, Mich., is over eighty years of age. Since 1865 he has been troubled more or less with indigestion and constipation and has tried almost everything in use for those ailments. Last August he began using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and was soon feeling much better. In a recent letter he says:
"I have used three boxes of the Tablets and now think I am well." These Tablets improve the appetite and invigorates the stomach, liver and bowels.

popular in many localities as Ely's Cream Balm. It is prepared for use in a nozzle, and is highly prized by those who have cinal properties of the celebrated Cream Balm
